

NEW CEO FOR PANASONIC LIGHTING EUROPE GMBH

A new speaker of the board of management was appointed at Panasonic Lighting Europe GmbH with effect from 1 March 2017.

Mr. Katsufumi Miyamoto succeeds Mr. Setsuo Mizusawa, who has now entered retirement. Klaus Breisch continues to be a member of the board of management.

Panasonic Lighting Europe GmbH is the holding of a group of companies to which Vossloh-Schwabe GmbH – an enterprise with many years of experience on the lighting market – also belongs.

Previously, Mr. Miyamoto spent many years working in leading positions within the Panasonic parent company. His aims for Vossloh-Schwabe as a global player now centre around continuing to evolve the company in its role as a systems provider with a focus on the OEM business and an all-round range of products including LED drivers, modules and optics. The strategy is flanked by niche activities and the road towards "Digital Light, Light ID" in connection with increasingly intelligent equipment and sensor technology.

Katsufumi Miyamoto

Vossloh-Schwabe has been active in the lighting sector for more than 90 years and numbers among the industry's global market and technology leaders. Headquartered in Germany, the company currently employs a workforce of around 1,000 people in more than 20 countries. As a member of the Panasonic Group, Vossloh-Schwabe operates in accordance with a strict environmental policy and will continue to pursue an ongoing reduction of CO₂ emissions.

